

Drip Design & Scheduling for Urban Landscapes (4 Hr. Course)

This is a hands-on course covering the following;

Understanding course objectives

- When should drip be used
- Types of drip
 - In-Line
 - Point Source
- Choosing the right emitter for the right application
 - Plant spacing
 - Soil type
- Things to consider
 - Pressure
 - Static
 - Dynamic
 - Pipe sizing
 - Valve sizing
- Layout
- Scheduling
 - Soil, Water & Plant relationship
 - In-Line
 - Point Source
- Troubleshooting
- Maintenance

Course Sponsor: Illinois Green Industry Association
Course Instructor: Gregg Roesink and Kevin Battistoni, Hunter Industries
Course Title: Drip Design & Scheduling for Urban Landscapes
Illinois Licensed POR: William Keyser
Number of CE Hours requested: Four (4)

Originally Submitted to
IDPH: 11/12/19
Originally Approved as 750-198-C8
Resubmitted to IDPH:
10/25/21
Approved 11/22/21