

About Platt Hill

- ✓ He is disciplined! Graduated from Culver Military Academy in Culver, Indiana. Culver is a college preparatory boarding school that was also home to Dierks Bentley, Hal and George Steinbrenner III, Gene Siskel, and many other notables.
- ✓ He loves the numbers! He holds an MBA from University of Chicago with a concentration in Finance, Accounting and Statistics.
- ✓ He has a strong industry foundation! He interned at Monrovia and Select Nursery before starting at D. Hill Nursery.
- ✓ He is a servant leader! Platt has devoted a significant portion of his career serving the industry. He has served on the:
 - Illinois Nurseryman's Association Board (now Illinois Green Industry Association) from 1991 - 1999
 - ANLA (now AmericanHort) Retail Division Board from 2001 - 2006
 - Illinois Retail Merchants Association Board (2008 – Present)
- ✓ He is a competitive sportsman! He works hard at the nursery and garden center, but also knows when it's time to get serious on the court or range. Platt enjoys racquetball, pickleball, tennis, and golf. Ask him about duplicate bridge.
- ✓ He is a dedicated family man! Platt and his wife Barbara celebrated 37 years together this September. Sons Clark and Graham are working with their father, with plans to manage Platt Hill Nursery in the future.

