

Bilingual Spanish Landscape Maintenance Production Manager

Scope:

The Acres Group is seeking a Bilingual Spanish Landscape Maintenance Production Manager. The Production Manager is a hands-on position that will manage field supervisors and crews, including managing commercial landscape maintenance service schedules. This person will need to understand quality, safety, service and what it takes to surpass customer expectations. Our goal is to identify and solve problems before the client is aware of their existence.

Overview:

- Manage maintenance and field crews, providing leadership, training, quality control, and support, attained through effective teamwork, and customer service
- Lead, motivate, and manage a team of diversified maintenance foremen, department leaders, and laborers
- Responsible for profitable performance of the project
- Manage all landscape services, including the coordination of all materials, people, equipment and subcontractors
- Maintain the appearance of each customer/client property to exceed customer expectations,
- Inspect and monitor each property to ensure the proper amount of service is given to surpass customer expectations
- Establish goals and deadlines received from all sales work orders and service requests as appropriate.
- Planning and projections to ensure appropriate crew coverage under all weather conditions, and develop contingent adjustment plans
- Identify customer property enhancements, proposals for plant replacements, flowers and insect/disease spraying
- Attend board meetings, establish business partnerships with the property managers and potential customers
- Track timesheets, billing, work orders, weekly and/or monthly property reports, labor reports, and other documents that are required
- Monitor job costs and make any needed adjustments to meet/surpass established goals.
- Monitor and maintain irrigation controller including coordination of repairs
- Train crews and ensure proper equipment usage, pruning techniques, safety, and quality standards are followed
- Being observant of crews to eliminate worksite injuries and vehicle/equipment damage
- Job coaching and motivation of field crews and foremen, including counseling, discipline.
- Accountable for accurate inventory management
- Actively participate in snow program planning and the snow readiness process, including snow meetings for Acres employees and subs, worker training and certifications, etc.

Qualifications

- Solid and proven supervisory/management experience within landscape maintenance
- Ability to operate all equipment used by the maintenance crews
- Valid Driver's License
- Bilingual Spanish required

Preferred

- 2 or 4 year degree in a landscape-related field or certification by a landscape
- Operator license for trees, shrubs, and turf

Attributes

- Excellent Verbal and Written Communication
- Dedication and Integrity
- Competitive
- Customer Driven